

I see no problem in XM radio offering traffic and weather services. I find it a very added bonus to have the reports available all the time since it cannot be found on the regular broadcast stations. The reports are much more in depth and offer more of what i am looking for. It would be rediculous to not allow XM to broadcast this valuble information.